

FALL 2023 NEWSLETTER

Feasterville-Treose Lions Club, District 14A, Fall 2023 Newsletter
Keeping you informed of what we do in making our Community a better place to live

Some notable achievements this past quarter:

- ✓ Our club provided budgeted funds to Lion Jeanine Price to support her participation in community sponsored events—“freebees” that remind people of that Feasterville-Treose Lions are there to support them. She also attended “Family Day” in Hulmeville, August 5.
- ✓ A virtual District 14 A Directory, 2023 - 2024 has been added to our website. Check it out!
- ✓ PDG Tom Vasek formally installed the Chapel of the Four Chaplains Lions Club on August 15. Images shown on the next page of this newsletter.
- ✓ We hosted our annual Italian Day Festival in Bristol, September 8. Images provided on next page. We’ve netted almost $1,000—proceeds could have been better if not for the weather.
- ✓ Several of our members have been participating in Boscov’s “Friends Helping Friends” fundraiser from September 18 to October 18 at the Neshaminy Mall, where our Lions volunteer to sell customers a shopping pass for $5 that will entitle them to a shopping 25% discount off, lowest sale prices. All shopping pass proceeds went back to our Lions Club.
- ✓ Lion Jeanine Price was awarded a Good Samaritan Award by Past President, Sahil Saif on October 10. Congratulations, Jeanine!
- ✓ New member, Rose Jacobs was inducted into our club by PDG Tom Vasek, October 10.
- ✓ Representative Joe Hogan, presented an overview of his activities as Co-Chairman for District 142 Legislative Non-profit Caucus at our Lions Board Meeting October 10.
- ✓ We recently acquired a Club Awards Banner, pole and stand for use at all of our meetings.
- ✓ For Halloween, Lions Jeanine, Will, Elliot, Sally, and Vicki supported a “trunk and treat” at the Treose Shopping Center, Saturday October 28. “East West Karate Treose” hosted this event. Proceeds benefited the Lower Southampton and Treose Fire Houses. Images will be uploaded to our website on the Gallery page.

Member Spotlight: ROSE JACOBS

Rose's early education achievements began in Western Pennsylvania: a graduate of Leechburg High School, followed by a B. A., University of Pittsburgh (Secondary English), an M.Ed, Indiana University. She did postgraduate work to gain library certification at Arcadia University.

She has extensive experience in education, teaching at a variety of public school systems, as well as participating in professional development in many areas, including assessment, behavior management, and child development.

Rose is the consummate volunteer. She is a lifetime member of the Pennsylvania Association of Gifted Education (PAGE), and served in several capacities. She is also a founding member of Bucks-Mont Gifted Alliance.

In Bensalem, she is involved in numerous district committees and activities. Her son is a graduate of the Bensalem Township School District—during his high school enrollment, Rose was an active Music Booster, Reading Olympics chaperone, Public Relations and Community Outreach Committee member, and a member of the BHS Home and School Association. She's been an active member of the Bensalem Association Dedicated to Gifted Education (BADGE), especially in facilitating communications to over 300 parents, teachers, staff, administrators primarily through email newsletters.

Rose has served as Director on the Bensalem Township School Board. She is a lifetime and active member of the NAACP.

She and her spouse live in Trevose.

Welcome, Rose Jacobs to the Feasterville-Trevose Lions Club!
